

Peter Heavyside is Executive Director of Agile8 Consulting.

Peter combines broad and deep P&L, operational, customer facing, M&A and commercial experiences gained in the telecommunications and IT sectors as well as in fiercely competitive domestic and international markets. Before taking up CEO responsibilities in the telecommunications sector (Managing Director & CEO of CLP Telecom a wholly owned subsidiary of CLP Holdings), he had experience in sales, marketing, product management, business development, customer service, business support systems, network operations, network planning, network engineering, project management, process re-engineering and national standards and policies.

Peter holds a BSc (Hons) in Electronics from London University.